The Stories of Pro Bono in TN

This month's stories
are submitted by
Nancy Cogar, TFJA &
GJI Partnership
Coordinator,
Chattanooga, TN.
Nancy developed the
GJI Office Hours
concept, proving a
simple commitment
can make a huge
impact.

"God has done
amazing things
through us in Chattanooga. These
are just a few of the stories of His hand in this work. It is a blessing and a joy to
be a part of these
efforts."

"Debbie" is [a] single
mom who came to us
seeking help. She came in with an 8-
inch thick binder of
pleadings produced
after several years
attempting to resolve
her divorce and child
support/custody
issues with her ex-
husband. She had
represented herself
pro se during most of
the matter against her
ex-husband's lawyer.
She felt alone and
was worn out and
wanting resolution for
the sake of her
children. [However], it
appeared that her ex-
husband had no
interest in resolving
any of the issues. We were able to get the
parties to mediation
and represent her
through that process
so that an agreement
was reached between
the parties and is now
pending final court
approval. Debbie felt
free when the matter
was resolved and
thankful that someone
cared to stand by her
and support her.
During the walk to
mediation, we had
met several times for
early morning coffee
and prayed together.
She was encouraged
and recognized that God had not forsaken
her during this difficult time."
